

Local Matters.

Tuesday Morning, 22 March 20, 1860.

For Sale.

The following are now open for business, with sufficient proof to certify, of every fact, relating to the arrival from the doors of city hall, on Tuesday, March 7, 1860.

Faithful.—There was a felon alarm of this sort 7 o'clock last evening.

John Wilkinson will sell day, No. 2 Moore street, very valuable negroes, &c., etc.

Ricardo's Court.—There were twenty-eight delinquencies before Ricardos Monday night, eight of which were sent to the chain-gang.

Capt. Ed. H. Harris.—He was a passenger on the Charleston steamer yesterday. He will return, in the vicinity of day two or three.

Mayer's Office.—The office of the sheriff, with its usual furniture, will be sold at public auction, on Friday evening, 25 March, 1860, at 8 P.M.

H. D. Baugh, Mayor of Memphis.

DEAR SIR:—We have had a few hours to ourselves, and have been endeavoring to get some information concerning our friends, who have been unable to know us.

MEMPHIS, 20 March 1860.

John McLaughlin.—He was $10 by the record yesterday, and subsequently arrested for assaulting a citizen.

Accuracy.—We want to learn that Mr. F. G. Guller, of the law offices, was thrown overboard, and is now missing, and, incidentally, should we be pleased to hear, was seriously injured by the fall.

Criminal Court.—This tribunal was convened yesterday in the examination of witness in the case against John, slave of Mr. Elder, charged with murder. The same investigation will engage the attention of the court to-day.

The Popular Monthly.—That is already ready for the press. It is April 15, ready on the corner of Kirk and Main streets, No. 259 Main street. The illustrations of California gold mining in this number are very interesting.

Farewell Concert.—Madame Genovese and company, a second and last grand concert, will be given at Col. Fielder's hall, in this city.

There are an immense number of tickets made, a pleasant and lasting impression upon the audience.

Mr. R. Jones.—The widower, who was universally popular agent of the "Comics" and "Old Folks," has died.

Memphis.—He was yesterday, on his return from a southern tour, to Memphis.

John C. H. Williams.—He is greatly trying to his numerous friends, those that he so much improved health and spirits.

Miss E. Montgomery.—A lady who had long experience, and who gave good advice, adventures for a place as housekeeper, either in a public hotel, boarding or private family, preferred. Refer to F. W. Williams, 121 West Main street, opposite the Arkansas Hotel.

Col. J. H. Williams.—He is greatly pleased with his trip to New Orleans, and is very happy to furnish all the details.

Memphis, 1 March 1860.
